LIBRARY REPORT

We have kept our old patrons during the year and added new ones to the list of names who apply regularly for books.

Sixty-eight books have been ordered for the shelves, but owing to some unavoidable delay are not ready for distribution at this writing. We feel that nothing can ever repay the people who found libraries and conduct them, for the services they are rendering the public. Books are rare treasures, it being hard to estimate their value.

Children will acquire a taste for the best literature very early in life, for the child's joy of reading depends on his education, his early training and the books he is given to read when he is very young, hence the importance of providing the best. By the generosity and thoughtfulness of John Rand of Pittsfield, our library came into possession of a large collection of books from the estate of Mary Kelsey.

These books are more varied in character than it is customary to buy, consisting of history, poetry and other choice reading.

The librarian and trustees unite in expressing their appreciation and gratitude to Mr. Rand for this gift.

Several other people have given one or more books, which we accept with thanks.

The library will be open Tuesday and Saturday afternoons from 2 until 5 o'clock, and Saturday evenings from 7 until 9, except holidays.

MRS. JOHN GEORGE, Librarian.
F. T. HUNT,
ABBIE D. DANIELS,
ABBIE HILL,
Library Trustees.

We, the undersigned, certify that we have examined the accounts of the selectmen, town clerk, treasurer, collector, road agents, trustees of the trust fund, library trustees, fire companies and fire warden, for the year ending January 31, 1923, and find them correctly cast and properly vouched.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the School Board and Citizens of Barnstead:

I herein submit my sixth annual report as Superintendent of Schools, it being the sixth in the series of such reports.

Alterations

As insufficient appropriations were placed at the disposal of your school board, no permanent alterations have been made. Only minor repairs could be attended to.

However, I recommend that the old constructive policy begun in 1919-20 be renewed and a reasonable appropriation be placed in the hands of your school board.

In the long run, I believe this is economy and in the interests of the highest welfare of the town.

At Beauty Hill, the lighting needs attention, new curtains, the ceiling whitened and walls painted or papered and new toilets installed.

At Center, new curtains and seats are needed, ceiling and walls should be painted.

At Parade, new adjustable seats should be installed and ceiling and walls painted.

At White Oaks, the ceiling should be painted, the walls plastered and toilets installed.

Some definite action should be taken by the District at its annual meeting, either to so locate a schoolhouse that would consolidate Locke's Corner, Pitman and Shackford's Corner schools, or convey the pupils to the Center and make the Center building into a two-room schoolhouse with two teachers.

In General

From the statistical table, we note a loss of 1 2-9 per cent in the average attendance, but the number of tardinesses were decreased by seventy-eight. This latter gain is encouraging and in the right direction.

On account of sickness, bad weather and impassable roads, the attendance cannot always be controlled, but tardy marks are within the possibilities of parents and pupils to govern.

Also we note an increase of eight on the Roll of Honor.

During the year we have continued the use of Houghton's system of writing and applied the Ayer standard tests to both writing and spelling. In writing, we have aimed at neatness, legibility and a fair degree of speed.

In reading, we devote the first three years to the mechanics of reading; i. e., giving the child the tools by which he may decipher the written word. More emphasis has been placed on the sounding the words and the drilling of phonics.

After the third grade attention has been turned more particularly to three points, viz, (1) The getting the thought from the written page; (2) Silent reading under the guidance of the teacher, i. e., the getting the thought for ourselves; (3) Oral reading, the giving of the thoughts to another, which implies clear articulation and enunciation and a proper expression of thought. In fact, teachers who have insisted on the pupil giving back the thought in his own words, even from the first grade, have developed the best readers.

In number work or arithmetic, we have begun with the concrete and then gone to the abstract. In the first and second grades considerable picture work has been done to illustrate the principles in concrete form. We have tried to master all possible combinations of numbers up to ten and in some schools even to twenty. Also developed and given thorough drill on the multiplication tables.

After this fundamental preparation we have tried to confine our work to the practical principles that enter into the needs of the ordinary citizen, viz., drill on the four fundamental principles—addition, subtraction, multiplication and division; common and decimal fractions; percentage with its applications, i. e., profit and loss, commission, insurance and taxes; simple interest and compound, with its application to banking; measurements of the quadrilateral, triangle, circle and problems that are based upon them; wood, lumber, carpeting, papering; indeed, problems that develop the principles of length, areas and contents, also the right triangle, which implies the knowledge of square root.

In geography, history, physiology and other subjects of similar nature, teachers who have used the topical method under the guidance of the five steps in teaching given in chapter seventeen of the State Program of Studies have obtained the best results.

The following pupils passed the eighth grade examinations last June:

Parade—C. Harold Clough, Zelma Davis, Madeline Jenkins, Elsie A. Tuttle.

White Oaks—Doris Ada Bunker, Frances E. Emerson, R. W. Eastman, Gertha A. Ward.

Pitman—Mary E. Holmes, Rebecca Pitman, Laura Pitman, George Pitman.

Seven of the above graduates from our graded schools entered high schools in September and have maintained creditable rank in their respective schools. In fact, about one-seventh of the entire school enrollment of Barnstead will be found in the neighboring high schools.

Certainly this speaks well for the rural schools and the interest parents are taking in education.

In conclusion, I would express my appreciation to the teachers for their willingness to work faithfully in all matters pertaining to the welfare of the schools. This, more than anything else, has made possible our creditable standing in school achievement.

I would also extend to the school board my sincere thanks for their assistance and loyal support. These things and the congenial attitude of parents, citizens and pupils, have been important elements in the welfare of our schools.

Respectfully submitted,

FREDERICK T. JOHNSON
Superintendent of Schools.
